

Best Choice FISH

Task: you need to gather science evidence to justify the classification of your fish.

1. What information do you think you will need to gather?
2. Where do you think you could find this information?
3. Find and record evidence to justify the classification .
4. Present the information in a way that can be understood by your classmates.
  - You will need to explain any scientific terms that you use.
  - You might like to include diagrams, images, tables or graphs in your presentation.

Best Choice FISH

Task: you need to gather science evidence to justify the classification of your fish.

1. What information do you think you will need to gather?
2. Where do you think you could find this information?
3. Find and record evidence to justify the classification.
4. Present the information in a way that can be understood by your classmates.
  - You will need to explain any scientific terms that you use.
  - You might like to include diagrams, images, tables or graphs in your presentation.

