

NZASE

Term 3 & 4 2020 Webinar series

#	Date	Focus	Registration link
1	Wednesday 19 August	Emergency science teaching and learning during COVID-19 lockdown	Click here to join the NZASE webinar series group. You only need to join once. We will email you a link to the Zoom on the morning of each webinar. NZASE Webinar Series Group Registration
2	Wednesday 2 September	Digital tools for remote teaching
3	Tuesday 8 September	Evidence-based teaching in science
4	Thursday 17 September	Developing critical thinking in science
5	Monday 28 September	Engaging Māori and Pasifika students in science
6	Tuesday 29 September	NCEA preparation – developing the necessary skills and dispositions in yrs 9 & 10
7	Wednesday 30 September	Understanding in science NoS strand
8	Thursday 8 October	Investigating in science NoS strand
9	Friday 9 October	Communicating in science NoS strand
10	Tuesday 13 October	Participating and contributing NoS strand
11	Thursday 15 October	Developing understanding of Mātauranga Māori knowledge systems into English medium science
12	Wednesday 21 October	Leading change in science teaching
13	Thursday 22 October	Recognising naturally occurring evidence
14	Tuesday 27 October	Argumentation in science
15	Tuesday 3 November	Addressing misconceptions in science understanding
16	Wednesday 4 November	Universal Design for Learning (UDL) – creating a more inclusive classroom –
17	Tuesday 10 November	Practical laboratory activities – minds & hands on science activities
18	Thursday 12 November	Science as a human endeavour
19	Wednesday 18 November	Analysing student outcome data
20	Thursday 19 November	Engaging with parents and whānau around shifts in science education
21	Wednesday 25 November	Enhancing science teaching and learning with digital tools
22	Thursday 26 November	Weaving science into primary literacy
23	Tuesday 1 December	Weaving science into primary numeracy
24	Wednesday 2 December	Formative assessment	